

Easter

Bible Reading Plan

This April, we are reading the story of Easter.

We begin with a few of Jesus' teachings on prayer, as part of our Week of Prayer. We then move to Jesus' predictions of his own death as he began his journey to the cross and Jerusalem. Over the next five weeks we read the events leading to Palm Sunday, Jesus' betrayal and abandonment from his disciples leading to his death. At Easter, we read the eyewitness accounts of his resurrection and Jesus' appearances in the following weeks. Then we finish with passages reflecting on what the resurrection means for us. If you struggle to understand a passage, reading other translations or paraphrases can help. Some can be found at www.bible.com

Visit www.ssc.church/reading to download our reading plan, find a link to our Facebook Discussion Group, and videos with tips for reflecting on Scripture.

During these weeks, we will also be sharing tips on Sundays and online to help us share our God stories with others.
