Curious God

In Scripture, God asks questions not because He doesn't know the answers, but for our benefit. God asks so we can reflect, learn and understand what we need to see.

Read This Week's Passage: Exodus 4:1-17

In chapter 3, before our reading, God speaks to Moses about the suffering of the Israelites and tells Moses to go back to Egypt to lead them to freedom. Read Moses reaction in 4:1. Why do you think he responded this way? How do you think you would have responded?

In 4:2 God asks Moses, "What is that in your hand?" Moses' rod was nothing exceptional and likely didn't feel like it was important to Moses. What does God choosing his shepherding rod teach us about what God uses to work for his purposes?

Read Exodus 4:3-9. After Moses sees the signs, he responds to God in verses 10 & 13. What do these responses reveal about Moses? How have you responded to God similarly? How are you different?

What in your life is God leading you to act on now? How do you feel about it? What has God put in your hand that you might have overlooked? How can your group pray for you?

What else do you notice from this week's passage?

Curious God

In Scripture, God asks questions not because He doesn't know the answers, but for our benefit. God asks so we can reflect, learn and understand what we need to see.

Read This Week's Passage: Exodus 4:1-17

In chapter 3, before our reading, God speaks to Moses about the suffering of the Israelites and tells Moses to go back to Egypt to lead them to freedom. Read Moses reaction in 4:1. Why do you think he responded this way? How do you think you would have responded?

In 4:2 God asks Moses, "What is that in your hand?" Moses' rod was nothing exceptional and likely didn't feel like it was important to Moses. What does God choosing his shepherding rod teach us about what God uses to work for his purposes?

Read Exodus 4:3-9. After Moses sees the signs, he responds to God in verses 10 & 13. What do these responses reveal about Moses? How have you responded to God similarly? How are you different?

What in your life is God leading you to act on now? How do you feel about it? What has God put in your hand that you might have overlooked? How can your group pray for you?

What else do you notice from this week's passage?

Week 5: What Is That in Your Hand?