Curious God

Read This Week's Passage: Haggai 1:1-14

Read Haggai 1:2. Haggai speaks to the people of Jerusalem 16 years after they had stopped work on the temple. How do we delay doing what God asks?

Read Haggai 1:3. Panelled houses refer to the people caring for themselves and neglecting God's work. What are the equivalents of panelled houses for us today?

"If we wait for the perfect circumstances to give, it will never be the right time to be generous." What are circumstances that make people less likely to give and be generous?

What kinds of teachings have you heard in the past regarding generosity and giving in the church? How have they formed your understanding of what it means to be a Christ follower?

God asks the people twice, "Give careful thought to your ways." Read verses 5-6, then 7-8. What do you think God is pointing to in each reflection? How does each reflection connect to your experience?

In the message, giving a gift out of love and gratitude was contrasted with giving a gift to coerce and control. Have you experienced both types of giving in your life? Use those experiences to reflect on giving and your relationship with God.

Have you experienced blessing when you've been generous towards what God has called you to give toward? (See: Malachi 3:10).

What else do you notice from this week's passage?

Curious God

Read This Week's Passage: Haggai 1:1-14

Read Haggai 1:2. Haggai speaks to the people of Jerusalem 16 years after they had stopped work on the temple. How do we delay doing what God asks?

Read Haggai 1:3. Panelled houses refer to the people caring for themselves and neglecting God's work. What are the equivalents of panelled houses for us today?

"If we wait for the perfect circumstances to give, it will never be the right time to be generous." What are circumstances that make people less likely to give and be generous?

What kinds of teachings have you heard in the past regarding generosity and giving in the church? How have they formed your understanding of what it means to be a Christ follower?

God asks the people twice, "Give careful thought to your ways." Read verses 5-6, then 7-8. What do you think God is pointing to in each reflection? How does each reflection connect to your experience?

In the message, giving a gift out of love and gratitude was contrasted with giving a gift to coerce and control. Have you experienced both types of giving in your life? Use those experiences to reflect on giving and your relationship with God.

Have you experienced blessing when you've been generous towards what God has called you to give toward? (See: Malachi 3:10).

What else do you notice from this week's passage?

Week 8: Is It a Time to…?