

Curious God

In Scripture, God asks questions not because He doesn't know the answers, but for our benefit. God asks so we can reflect, learn and understand what we need to see.

Read: Genesis 3:1-11

What stands out to you in today's passage?

After Adam & Eve disobey, God still comes to them in the garden. When they are hiding, God continues to look for them and calls out in verse 9, Where are you?

What does God's question teach us about God's attitude and hopes for them? For us?

Imagine that you heard God walking down the street coming to where you are now, how do you imagine you would react?

What does that reaction say about how you feel about God?

Compare how Adam & Eve thought of themselves in Genesis 3:7,10 to Genesis 2:25? What changed?

God asks in verse 11, Who told you that you were naked? God was not bothered by their nudity, but now they were. How does disobedience (sin) change how we think about ourselves?

Adam and Eve had replaced their understanding of God's intention with something else. Who/what makes you doubt or question what God's truth would say about you?

God responds to Adam & Eve's concern about their nudity in Genesis 3:21. How do you think God will respond to what bothers you today?

Curious God

In Scripture, God asks questions not because He doesn't know the answers, but for our benefit. God asks so we can reflect, learn and understand what we need to see.

Read: Genesis 3:1-11

What stands out to you in today's passage?

After Adam & Eve disobey, God still comes to them in the garden. When they are hiding, God continues to look for them and calls out in verse 9, Where are you?

What does God's question teach us about God's attitude and hopes for them? For us?

Imagine that you heard God walking down the street coming to where you are now, how do you imagine you would react?

What does that reaction say about how you feel about God?

Compare how Adam & Eve thought of themselves in Genesis 3:7,10 to Genesis 2:25? What changed?

God asks in verse 11, Who told you that you were naked? God was not bothered by their nudity, but now they were. How does disobedience (sin) change how we think about ourselves?

Adam and Eve had replaced their understanding of God's intention with something else. Who/what makes you doubt or question what God's truth would say about you?

God responds to Adam & Eve's concern about their nudity in Genesis 3:21. How do you think God will respond to what bothers you today?

