

Curious God

In Scripture, God asks questions not because He doesn't know the answers, but for our benefit. God asks so we can reflect, learn and understand what we need to see.

Read This Week's Passage: Genesis 4:1-12

In Genesis 4:6, God asks, "Why are you angry, and why has your countenance fallen?" God's question points to Cain's jealous and angry attitude that Abel's sacrifices were more pleasing to God. While we may not go to Cain's extremes, this points to a common feeling. How do we react when we see others succeed while we are struggling or not well?

Read Genesis 4:7. God warns Cain's of the danger of his jealousy and sin. How would you explain this verse based on your own personal experience?

After the murder of Abel, God speaks to Cain again. Genesis 4:8.- Then the LORD said to Cain, "Where is your brother Abel?" He said, "I do not know; am I my brother's keeper?" How does Cain's response sometimes reflect our own attitude?

Read Jesus' words in Matthew 22:36-40. Why is loving others so tied to our relationship with God? Why in practice do we separate loving God from loving others in our minds?

Where is your brother? Asks about more than family (although they are included), it speaks to any relationship God is telling us we are avoiding. Is there someone God is bringing to your mind? What do you believe God would have you do?

Curious God

In Scripture, God asks questions not because He doesn't know the answers, but for our benefit. God asks so we can reflect, learn and understand what we need to see.

Read This Week's Passage: Genesis 4:1-12

In Genesis 4:6, God asks, "Why are you angry, and why has your countenance fallen?" God's question points to Cain's jealous and angry attitude that Abel's sacrifices were more pleasing to God. While we may not go to Cain's extremes, this points to a common feeling. How do we react when we see others succeed while we are struggling or not well?

Read Genesis 4:7. God warns Cain's of the danger of his jealousy and sin. How would you explain this verse based on your own personal experience?

After the murder of Abel, God speaks to Cain again. Genesis 4:8.- Then the LORD said to Cain, "Where is your brother Abel?" He said, "I do not know; am I my brother's keeper?" How does Cain's response sometimes reflect our own attitude?

Read Jesus' words in Matthew 22:36-40. Why is loving others so tied to our relationship with God? Why in practice do we separate loving God from loving others in our minds?

Where is your brother? Asks about more than family (although they are included), it speaks to any relationship God is telling us we are avoiding. Is there someone God is bringing to your mind? What do you believe God would have you do?

